

Agenda

8:00 a.m. Arrival, registration, and breakfast

8:30 a.m. Panel discussion and dialogue: Title IX - What's Working

Panelists from Swarthmore, Cabrini, Rowan and Penn have will outline the parts of their enforcement programs that they believe are working well, including both the how and the why. With plenty of time for Q and A Sharmaine LaMar (Asst.V.P., Inst. Risk Mgmt. and Legal Affairs, Swarthmore), Chris Mallios (Sexual Viol. Invest. Officer, UPenn), Rhasheda Douglas (Title IX Mgr., Rowan), Susan Rohanna (Dir.of HR & Title IX Coord., Cabrini).

10:15 a.m. Current Data and Privacy Issues

Montgomery McCracken's Mike Hayes and Priya Roy will discuss current hot topics and regulatory demands. Q and A.

10:45 a.m. Concussion Issues: Implications, Lessons and Minimizing Risk

Montgomery McCracken's Steve Pachman will provide background and current status on best practices, liabilities, and the extension of the worry to football as well as other athletic activities including intra-mural, club and permitted student activities of all types involving contact or the potential for head injury.

11:15 a.m. Campus Access under FHA and ADA

Montgomery McCracken's Catherine Gillespie will review current issues with recent updates, including access, accommodations, and service and therapy animals.

11:45 a.m. Trigger Warnings

Montgomery McCracken's Karen Ibach will review current thinking, and strategies for avoiding needless headaches.

12:00 p.m. LUNCH

12:30 p.m. Ripped from the Headlines [Pa. Ethics CLE]

Montgomery McCracken's John Myers and Jeremy Mishkin will review several headline-grabbing ethics issues relevant to Higher Ed.